

RTMNU Semester –I Online Examination Winter 2021

Important instructions for students

1. The winter RTMNU Semester-I Winter 2021 for all disciplines are scheduled from 14/02/2022 to 28/02/2022. From 10 to 11 am. Time tables for all the exams are available on college website, students' notice board in college and student groups.
2. Students must ensure their presence on the respective subject groups with their correct mobile numbers, in case of any problem get in touch with respective teacher.
3. There shall be separate WhatsApp groups for external students, they need to attempt the exam only for the subjects they have opted for attempting in university exam form.
4. Need to ensure a good device and network facility before attempting the exam any discrepancies on this account shall not be entertained.
5. To facilitate proper connectivity a mock test shall be assigned on various subject groups covering all the students, everyone need to verify their device connectivity by attempting the mock test. Anyone missing the collection of their response gets opportunity before actual exam to sort it out and avoid future problems. Use same device for actual exam.
6. The links for the various subject exams shall be posted on respective subject WhatsApp group 5 minutes before the start of the exam as per time table.
7. During the course of examination student should keep track of all the messages in related WhatsApp group. In any case they should not exceed the time limit marked for submission. Everyone to note that Only ONE response submission shall be permitted. Connecting from different devices is prohibited.
8. If any of the students is not able to open the link after its activation they need to contact the respective subject teacher immediately. Submit as advised in the messages on the group.
9. If there is any problem in submission, report the issue with related details in the specified format to the concerned teacher within an hour of completion of the related paper.
10. These shall be carefully scrutinized by the grievance committee the eligible candidates shall have to appear for OFFLINE examination of the related paper on the rescheduled date. May be held in first week of March 2022.
11. Resorting to unfair means of any kind shall not be entertained.